

Email language for sending applications

“Please find attached the application(s) for the insurance policy(ies) we discussed. In completing these applications, our office may have completed some of the questions on your behalf and made assumption regarding the answers which have been shown.

It is imperative that you carefully review this paperwork and verify that all questions have been answered correctly and accurately. If any of the answers shown are incomplete or inaccurate, please DO NOT sign/date the forms but contact our office to discuss.

If after reviewing all pages of this paperwork, you have determined that all answers on the application(s) are correct, please sign and date where indicated and return the forms to our office by email, fax, or US Postal. If we receive these signed/dated applications, we will understand that you have reviewed the paperwork in its entirety and that you certify all answers to be correct, complete, and accurate. Any information provided to the insurance company that may be considered a misstatement of fact, can void the policy at the time of a claim”
